FIELD ENFORCEMENT DIVISION
REGULATORY AND LICENSING SECTION
410-260-7314

NOTICE TO RETAILERS

If wine and/or distilled spirits have been delivered to a retail licensee by a wholesaler or manufacturer on or before the PURCHASE DATE indicated in Column I, and payment is not received by the wholesaler on or before the corresponding DUE DATE listed in Column II, then the retailer is considered by state regulation to be overdue. Retailers can avoid most problems associated with late mail deliveries by mailing remittances at least five (5) days before the specified DUE DATES.

Regulation 03.02.01.04 requires Maryland wholesalers and manufacturers who sell wine and distilled spirits to retailers to (1) report the retailer to the Licensing & Registration Unit for late payment (even if payment was received after the due date) and (2) simultaneously notify the retailer that a report has been submitted to the Licensing & Registration Unit. Reports and notifications must be made for all late payments. The Licensing & Registration Unit will determine whether or not the retailer is placed on the credit control list.

THE THREE-TIER ALCOHOL DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM

WHY IT WORKS

For over 79 years, the beverage alcohol industry has successfully served consumers and communities by distributing wine, spirits and beer through a three-tier system of licensed suppliers, wholesalers and retailers. Every state established this system after the repeal of Prohibition in 1933. Designed to prevent the abuses that led to Prohibition, the three-tier system has created the most innovative, competitive and consumer-friendly system in the world today.

Because of the three-tier system, Americans have access to an astounding variety and selection of products in every category, at reasonable and dependable prices.

The three-tier system is the model of social responsibility. Suppliers, wholesalers and retailers all play a crucial role in providing outstanding choice and availability, while protecting the integrity and quality of alcoholic beverages.

The system creates a framework of regulations, which mandates responsibility and accountability in beverage alcohol distribution.

Consumers benefit from the three-tier system every day through lower prices and greater selection. Boutique distillers and wineries are able to get their products to a wider range of outlets, and small retailers have access to a greater variety of product at lower prices through wholesalers.

BENEFITS OF THREE-TIER REGULATIONS

- Efficiency in collecting taxes
- Preventing the sale of alcohol to minors
- Fostering and overseeing responsible competition
- Creating balance between and within the tiers
- Ensuring public safety
- Preventing the sale of counterfeit and dangerous or deadly products

THE TIERS

SUPPLIERS

Producers of wine and spirits, such as wineries and distilleries, as well as importers.

DISTRIBUTORS

Intermediaries that purchase wine and spirits from suppliers to efficiently distribute to retailers.

RETAILERS

A variety of stores, as well as restaurants, bars, stadiums and hotels, that sell wine and spirits to consumers for consumption.

Disrupting this regulated chain would have disastrous ramifications on public safety and marketplace stability.

Vertical integration would benefit only large-chain businesses. And while it might encourage lower prices on select, mass-marketed items through big-box stores, it will cost the consumer, other players in the market and state governments in the end. Prices will likely increase; retailers will be driven out of business; innovation will decrease; consumer choice will be limited; tax revenues will decline; state regulatory expenses will increase; and jobs will be lost.

W*wine buzz*RELAX: THEY'RE CHARDO-LICIOUS

Just because a Chardonnay has a "California" appellation does not mean it's dull and generic. Two 2015s, both under $15, impressed us recently as examples of strategic sourcing and judicious oak treatment. Sterling's bright, tropical 2015 Vintner's Collection uses fruit from Monterey, Paso Robles and Edna Valley; 25% was barrel-fermented and aged seven months in oak. The vibrant and exceptionally balanced 2015 Julia James Chardonnay, made by Opici in tribute to the fifth generation of the family in the business, is sourced from Monterey, Carneros and San Joaquin vineyards then assembled and bottled within the Russian River Valley.

RODNEY STRONG ELEVATES MALBEC IN SONOMA

The word "Reserve" gets flung about rather easily in California wine—the term has no legal meaning. Sonoma-based Rodney Strong Vineyards has a long track record of ensuring that any wine they label "Reserve" is truly a cut above. The latest example is Rodney Strong 2013 Reserve Malbec. Select blocks within 60 acres worth of vines planted throughout Alexander Valley and Northern Sonoma County are hand-harvested, fermented separately and aged in French oak. After six months, each lot is tasted and graded; only the richest make it into the Reserve. Lush and structured, this inaugural release has intense dark berry fruit complemented by toasty oak and spice. SRP $40. rodneystrongvineyards.com

TOASTING EIGHT DECADES AT J. LOHR

To celebrate Jerry Lohr's 80th birthday, his eponymous winery is debuting J. Lohr Signature, a limited release Paso Robles Cabernet. Made with top fruit from the 2013 vintage, Signature also includes small amounts of Merlot from the Creston Vineyard and Petit Verdot from the Carol Vineyard in St. Helena. Only 966 six-bottle cases were produced of the inaugural wine, which will retail for $100 a bottle. Jerry founded J. Lohr Vineyards four decades ago, succeeding with cool-climate grape-growing in Monterey County and pioneering the region of Paso Robles.

Today, Paso Robles grows more Cabernet Sauvignon than any other coastal appellation in California, after Napa Valley. jlohr.com

Jerry Lohr has long championed the potential of Cabernet in Paso Robles.

BLACK INK GOES PINK

Guarachi Wine Partners, maker of the popular red blend Black Ink, is extending the line into rosé. Like its red sibling, Black Ink Rosé celebrates tattoo culture, featuring original artwork of a rose designed by Amy Nicoletto of the TLC show LA Ink. In conjunction with this product launch, there will be a national promotion to win a free tattoo by the famed artist. Black Ink Rosé has aromas of strawberry, watermelon and white flowers, and flavors of pomegranate, cherry and peach. SRP $11.99 guarachiwinepartners.com

NEW IN NEW ORLEANS

LEXI WINSTON, BEVERAGE DIRECTOR,
TRINITY, NEW ORLEANS

BY ALIA AKKAM

Lexi Winston is the Beverage Director of Trinity, a 'Big Easy' newcomer fast becoming a local favorite.

BEVERAGE MEDIA GROUP: New Orleans is one of the country's most alluring cities for imbibing. How does Trinity stand out amid so many other quality drinking establishments?

LEXI WINSTON: My goal for the bar menu is to have a balance of interesting cocktails that aren't intimidating or pretentious. I enjoy using flavor combinations that people crave, with my own twist. I also showcase a lot of standards, sourcing local brands and highlighting imported products that we are passionate about but people aren't necessarily seeking out because they haven't hit their radar yet, such as Fortaleza or Singani 63. Having a slick marble bar top in a Nouveau Cajun spot on funky Lower Decatur is a treat and echoes much of the charm of New Orleans, an enigmatic city that has a deep-rooted history and teems with life.

BMG: The menu is comprised of classic and trendy cocktails like the Bulleit bourbon Old Fashioned and Aranjuez Switch (Pisco, egg white, lemon, sugar, bitters), respectively. What was the intent behind this organization?

LW: It is absolutely designed to direct guests. For example, our classics are branded. This is a great tool. In a bustling restaurant we don't always have the luxury of extra time to devote to going over our entire catalog of liquors and drinks knowledge. This list gives you an at-a-glance chance to jump into your bartender's head and palate, making suggestions that allow you to enjoy some of your favorite cocktails—but the way we drink them off the clock or with a spirit we're currently obsessed with.

"This list gives you an at-a-glance chance to jump into your bartender's head."

BMG: Because New Orleanians love their Sazeracs and Vieux Carrés, the requests for these standbys must keep flowing. How do you keep things interesting?

LW: I like the term "new classic." We aren't looking to reinvent the wheel. The true New Orleans way is to take the family heirloom, paint it, patch it, put some glitter on it and make it our own, then throw a party and share it with the world. That's exactly our goal with the classics. I'm in love with the spicy and comforting Whistlepig Rye that we use in our Sazerac and it's 100 proof, so you get a little more bang for your buck. Virgil Kaine Robber Baron Rye in our Vieux Carré is delicious, dynamic and something old-school drinkers may not have tried yet, but should be on every backbar.

BMG: When you encourage guests to delve into the originals, which ones are a hit?

LW: We just launched our new cocktail menu, so it will be exciting to see which of our concoctions guests gravitate toward. Our current favorites are the King Voodoo (Euphrosine Gin #9, lemon, sugar, ginger liqueur, sesame oil, Peychaud's bitters) and the Royal Tart (Fortaleza reposado tequila, Frangelico, lemon, orgeat).

BMG: New Orleans masters the art of warm, engaging hospitality. How do you uphold that precedent at Trinity?

LW: Our door is always open, literally. Our doors are made almost entirely of glass, but we prop them open anyway because we want people to feel like they can just walk right in. Our new classic approach to things resonates throughout. We've got a great mix of older tunes flowing from our speaker, flickering candles and fresh fruit on the bar. Our staff is amazing and we enjoy each other immensely, which is plain to see from the moment you walk in. Behind the bar we are usually singing and shaking cocktails or having a laugh while cutting garnishes, which puts people at ease. It feels more like walking into a friend of a friend's dinner party than a fancy restaurant. Then your bartender smiles, places a bar napkin down along with your menus and that is the moment you realize what you've gotten yourself into. ■

RUMBLINGS
RUM REALM

NEW RANGE FROM DIPLOMATICO

Diplomatico Rum has a new Tradition Range with two new-to-market expressions. Mantuano (80 proof, SRP $24), which translates to “a local noble man,” is a blended rum aged for up to eight years. Planas, (94 proof, SRP $29), aged up to six years, is an elegant and rich blended white rum, with an intense sipping profile; a complex charcoal filtration process helps to balance its flavors and aromas. This rum takes its name from the Planas Valley, where the Diplomatico distillery is located, at the foot of the Andes Mountains. Reserva Exclusiva (80 proof, $40) remains a super-premium dark sipping rum, best enjoyed neat, on the rocks, or in classic cocktails. ### ‘HSE’ RHUM AGRICOLE CAPTURES THE MYSTIQUE OF MARTINIQUE

Rhum Agricole, produced only in the French Carribean, offers a peerless combination of unique character, rarity and authenticity. The spirit is prized for its sense of terroir, derived from its island environment and from its base of fresh cane sugar rather than molasses. Baron Francois is now importing one of the most venerable brands: HSE. The initials stand for Habitation Saint Etienne, a historic Martinique sugar estate turned into a farm distillery. While HSE currently makes 18 expressions, finishes and vintages, Baron Francois will initially import six: a white rhum agricole (SRP $29/L), VSOP ($50/750ml), XO ($84/750ml), two cask-finished versions (Sauternes $113/750ml, Highland $105/750ml) and the brand flagship, Black Sheriff. The line has a distinctive look suggesting Cognac or Scotch more than rum, and indeed the character of these sipping spirits definitely appeals to curious enthusiasts of brown spirits.

CASK & CREW: WHISKEY BLENDED, WITH A TWIST?

Order a “caffè corretto” in Italy, and you’ll get an espresso with a kick of something extra. That spirited drink inspired LiDestri Spirits to create Cask & Crew, a whiskey that communicates the infusion of flavors that unite, yet respect, the whiskey’s blend of rye and corn. Cask & Crew straight and flavored whiskeys are a 51%/49% blend of fine three-year-old Canadian rye and classic barrel-aged American corn whiskey respectively. Its sophisticated profile skillfully marries smoky and sweet notes. The line’s three initial flavors include a straight blend (40% ABV), and two that are “corrected”—Walnut Toffee or Ginger Spice (35% ABV). Priced at $24-$27, Cask & Crew is currently sold in New York, New Jersey, Florida, Connecticut, Maryland and Kentucky, and will be available in 12 states by spring. ### SPICE IS NICE FOR DON Q

Don Q has set sights on new territory, introducing Don Q Oak Barrel Spiced. Crafted by sixth-generation rum-maker Roberto Serrallés and Master Blender Jaiker Soto of Destilería Serrallés, the proprietary, infused blend has no added sugars or colors, was aged in American oak and given elegant packaging. Can be enjoyed neat or in creative cocktails. The NYC launch at Union Square Café featured the new Don Q in a “Spiced Rum Punch” created by Corey Fitzsimmons. SRP $29.99 donq.com

ONLINE & UPWARD

STRENGTH IN MILLIONS OF SEARCHES & ORDERS

BY IAN GRIFFITH

It was three and a half years ago that Beverage Media celebrated when order number one million was placed online by a Connecticut liquor store with one of its distributors. Now, not even four years later we are just months away from processing order number two million.

Online ordering in the alcoholic beverage industry is becoming a normal part of the business for many retailers and wholesalers as adoption continues to grow at a healthy pace. This year a distributor received over $10 million in orders in a single month from more than 400 accounts, a new milestone in the scale of business being conducted online.

While these sales figures show impressive growth, the majority of accounts on the B2B platform still don't place their orders online. Less than half the stores and about a quarter of the restaurants that are regular users of the website use it for placing orders. Other retailers may be avid users of the website, logging in every day, but they prefer to give orders directly to their sales reps. Some sales rep encourage this, while others are happy to have the account place their orders where and when it is most convenient. The difference between selling and servicing a reorder is becoming clearer.

DATA-SHARING ON THE RISE

With a million searches placed on the website each month, members of the drinks industry in major national markets rely on this website for current information about wholesaler listings and pricing. Spirits account for about 40% of the searches. California wines are the most searched products by far, outpacing Italian wines by more than 2:1. The next categories to feature prominently in searches are Vodka, Imported Sparking wine, French wine and Tequila. Monthly trends show that searches for French wines spike in April, while California wine dips in July.

Of the thousands of retailers using the website every week, the split by on- and off-premise is about even. Meanwhile sales reps and brand managers now represent an equally active group online. Sales reps love to have the answer to every question that a retailer asks, even when a product is not in their portfolio. It keeps the discussion going and sometimes that leads back to one of their products. Sales reps also take advantage of the tools for sharing product information with their accounts by building sell sheets and sharing links back to the website.

There were $350 million in orders placed online last year on BeverageMedia.com, primarily from the price-posting states NY, NJ and CT. This year we will be turning on the shopping cart in markets where pricing is not transparent; it is either finalized by the sales rep or the order board. It will be interesting to see the extent that online ordering grows under these conditions. Comprehensive access to online product search and pricing is an expectation for the younger generations of buyers that grew up on the internet. Building a search and order experience that meets their needs has become our business. ■

MARYLAND WINE

MARYLAND WINE IS...

GOOD FOR WINE LOVERS

Maryland's 75 wineries produce superb, handcrafted wines that compete with national brands, while highlighting all the benefits of buying local.

GOOD FOR AGRICULTURE

Maryland wineries support (and grow!) over 700 acres of grapes throughout the state. Grapes are a long-term crop, preserving open space and encouraging land preservation.

GOOD FOR TOURISM

Our industry attracts nearly 400,000 visitors annually to our wineries and wine festivals and events. These visitors spend their dollars at wineries, neighboring restaurants and accommodations.

GOOD FOR MARYLAND

Our wineries provide employment and tax revenue, supporting Maryland's rural economy by creating jobs that create tourism, preserve land and encourage agriculture. Maryland's wineries create $100 million in economic activity annually.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Facebook and Twitter @MDwine and be a part of the growth of great local wine industry.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that only 3 out of every 100 bottles of wine sold in the state are bottles of Maryland wine. It's not a lot, but it's growing, and if you buy more local wine, you create more local jobs, grow more vineyards and help preserve our rural economy.

JOIN MARYLAND WINE MONTH

We're promoting stores and restaurants that support Maryland wine during Maryland Wine month in March.

WINE LOVERS' SWITCHEROO

It's natural that many consumers will drink across all three major adult beverage categories, but they still have their "preferred" drink type, which Nielsen tracks.

FOR U.S. ADULTS AGES 21+ WHO DRINK ALCOHOL

38%
PICK BEER

31%
PICK WINE

28%
PICK SPIRITS

BUT HAS IT ALWAYS BEEN LIKE THIS?

Most beer fans today also say it was their go-to 10 years ago (73% of those 31+). A majority of today's spirit choosers say the same as well (63% of those 31+). Wine drinkers, on the other hand, seem to have changed their tune: just 4 in 10 say the same of 10 years ago (44% of those 31+).

▶ A DECADE AGO, MORE THAN HALF OF CURRENT WINE LOVERS FAVORED A DIFFERENT ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE.

CALIFORNIA CRUSHES IT

The official preliminary California crush report for 2016 indicates that just over 4.0 million tons of winegrapes were crushed, up from 3.69 million tons in 2015.

Reds accounted for 56.4%.

Chardonnay accounted for 16% of the total 2016 crush (including table grapes) and was up slightly over 2015.

Cabernet Sauvignon was the leading red variety, accounting for 13.3% of the total 2016 crush, was up from 11.8% on the year.

The average price for red wine grapes was $797.32/ton (up 1.6%); for whites $555.14/ton (up 2.9%).

COGNAC ENJOYS 2016 BOOST

Cognac exports hit a record high in 2016, both in volume and value, according to the Bureau National Interprofessionnel du Cognac (BNIC). This news comes on top of growth in 2015 as well.

COGNAC NOW REPRESENTS 20% OF FRENCH WINE & SPIRITS EXPORTS

The U.S., Cognac's largest market for 25 years, has been a prime driver of the recent surge. Shipments to North America and Mexico were up:

↑14.2% IN VOLUME     ↑14.3% IN VALUE

And VS level Cognac showed particular strength in the U.S.

WHAT 'GREEN' MEANS FOR WINE SELLERS

DEMAND FOR SUSTAINABLY PRODUCED WINE HAS INCREASED OVER THE PAST DECADE

and research commissioned by the California Sustainable Winegrowing Alliance (CSWA) suggests the trade is increasingly aiming to appeal to their "green" shoppers.

Market research firm Wine Opinions surveyed 457 members of its national trade panel (including distributors, retailers, restaurateurs, media) in late 2016 and found that a majority of respondents in the wholesale, on- and off-premise tiers either frequently (21%) or occasionally (52%) consider sustainable practices when selecting wines.

THE LEADING REASONS GIVEN BY RESPONDENTS:

- CONSUMER DEMAND
- PERSONAL INTEREST
- SELLING FEATURE

CHEERS FOR HAMILTON

Not the Broadway show, the currency, aka the sawbuck. According to Nielsen, THE AVERAGE PRICE OF A 750ML BOTTLE OF WINE IS PASSING THE $10 MARK FOR THE FIRST TIME, reflecting continuing premiumization. In fact, price tiers of bottled wines $11 and up all grew at a rate of at least 10% in 2016, while bottles priced under $8 were flat or shrinking.
