2019 SCHEDULE OF PURCHASE PERIODS & DUE DATES

FIELD ENFORCEMENT DIVISION
REGULATORY AND LICENSING SECTION
410-260-7314

NOTICE TO RETAILERS

If wine and/or distilled spirits have been delivered to a retail licensee by a wholesaler or manufacturer on or before the PURCHASE DATE indicated in Column I, and payment is not received by the wholesaler on or before the corresponding DUE DATE listed in Column II, then the retailer is considered by state regulation to be overdue. Retailers can avoid most problems associated with late mail deliveries by mailing remittances at least five (5) days before the specified DUE DATES.

Regulation 03.02.01.04 requires Maryland wholesalers and manufacturers who sell wine and distilled spirits to retailers to (1) report the retailer to the Licensing & Registration Unit for late payment (even if payment was received after the due date) and (2) simultaneously notify the retailer that a report has been submitted to the Licensing & Registration Unit. Reports and notifications must be made for all late payments. The Licensing & Registration Unit will determine whether or not the retailer is placed on the credit control list.

Director

FUTURE SHOCK

PROWEIN TRADE SHOW PROPELS THE INDUSTRY IN BOLD DIRECTIONS

BY W. R. TISH

Marking its 25th anniversary this year, besting its own numbers in virtually every statistical category, ProWein 2019 emphatically reasserted its position as the world’s leading wine and spirits trade fair. Having attended the show twice now, but five years apart, I sensed the size plateauing—which is not a bad thing for manageability—but the scope and depth of what’s on offer continue to escalate and advance.

A trip to ProWein is basically a trip into the future of the industry, both near and long term. Set annually for mid-March, it is the practical beginning of the industry’s business calendar—perfect for product launches; North American vintage releases; and 2019 promotional programming. Long-term, developing trends can be glimpsed in virtually every aisle of every hall of the sprawling, interconnected Messe Düsseldorf facility.

Here are some takeaways from this year’s Greatest Wine Show on Earth:

Rosé

Rosé—the wine and the movement—are both strong. Organoleptically and visually, there have never been so many good options. Provence had an especially attractive display and tasting area, and they—as a region—seem to be handling the role of Alpha Rosé quite admirably and elegantly, even as enormous displays and scores of new products nip at Provence’s crisp, dry heels. A human-sized rotating cut-out of Mateus Rosé was among the many attention-vying displays. And Italy took advantage of ProWein to collectively organize “Vini Rosa d’Italia,” presenting Charetto, Cerasuolo and Rosato wines in one pink place.

Cans

Cans are happening. The types of wine in cans is no longer something to count on one hand. One Italian line called Ciao had seven on its own. And while the juice ranges from organic (e.g. Château Maris) to Sangria, canned wines all seem to share a built-in casualness.

Organic + Eco-Friendly

Organic is, for all intents and purposes, mainstream in much of Europe. Düsseldorf TV stations were airing TV commercials for organic Red Bull. At the show itself, organic was everywhere. Organic Demand for cans is clearly global; Joyi cans from New Zealand opened up new markets in the UK, Scandinavian and South Korea at ProWein.

T trend spotting wine was first given a special section at ProWein in 2013, with about 250 exhibitors; in 2019, but organic bottles were so prevalent it seemed there was never not one within eyeshot. Biodynamic and Natural Wine exhibits reinforced how evolved the wine industry's green movement has come.

Environmentally-conscious elements continue on the upswing, evident in wine names (e.g., Tread Lightly, a line from Backsberg in South Africa); eco-minded label text and icons; and more eco-friendly formats (cans, lighter glass bottles, even pouches).

Spain

Spain struck me as the European country with the most still-to-be-discovered wines. In particular, Bobal is a grape so little-known here it's hard to call it underrated. And yet, it is widely planted in Spain and Valencia's Utiel-Requena region is teeming with affordable examples in every style from sparkling to rosé to fresh or full-bore reds.

'Same But Different'

Just as package and label technology seem to have become more populist, it appears that food science has entered a brave new era that could especially shake up the RTD (Ready-To-Drink) sector. Maybe the most memorably novel product I encountered at this ProWein was "Kukki," a bottled cocktail, in several expressions, each made from premium alcohol and juices, plus real fruit and ice in the bottle. That was just one of dozens of eyebrow-raising liquids on trial in the "Same But Different" hall at ProWein 2019. Also on offer here: a liqueur, La Capricieuse, made from goat's milk (chefs would go crazy for this). Fashioned to be more loungey than the other halls, this area was dedicated to 100 providers of "craft" beers, spirits and ciders. I have seen the future, and it is potable. ■

WINE PACKAGING ENTERS ITS GOLDEN AGE

Packaging technology has leveled the marketing playing field to a large degree. It seems that scale is no longer an impediment for boutique producers. Graphic capabilities are simply broader and more economical than ever, allowing for crafty winemakers to distinguish themselves with extreme graphics, provocative names, big numbers, funky shapes, even storytelling.

focusFather's Day
this year is
June 16thRAISING YOUR 'POP STANDARDS'

The classic Father's Day necktie-as-gift is now but a 20th century cliché. But there is a reason certain notions become cliché to begin with. Neckties became enshrined as a fail-safe dad gift because A) so many dads needed ties, plus B) within that one item were bountiful options for personalizing (or at least picking something he liked).

Today, ties are on fashion's endangered fashion species list, but brown goods are so popular that when fashioning Father's Day promotions, focusing on whiskey makes a lot of sense. There are plenty of malt distillates out there ready to be gifted; this creates an opportunity for creative shelf talkers, email offers and displays.

FLAVORTOWN IS CALLING

There should be no stigma related to flavor and one's beverage of choice. Whiskey's flavor range is expanding rather impressively. Three fresh-to-market expressions:

▶ Bird Dog Black Cherry Flavored Whiskey, from a flavor specialist (e.g. blackberry, peach), delivers a balanced blend of tart and juicy black cherries with distinct bourbon undertones. 80 proof, SRP $19.99.

◀ The world's second largest-selling bourbon, citing market research that apple is surpassing honey among brown goods, has added Evan Williams Apple. The 70 proof spirit offers juicy, sweet apple with hints of caramel and light spice, with a long, smooth finish of a green apple and bourbon blend. 70 proof, $14.99.

▼ Ambros may be the most shocking whiskey out there. And shockingly good. It is an Irish whiskey base infused with 100% real bananas—not artificial or "natural" flavors. Great for any red-blooded, banan-loving dad, but especially a creative mixologist (though it neat, too). Currently in CA, NV, NY; 60 proof, $39.99.

NOT YOUR GRANDDADDY'S SINGLE MALT

Single Malt Scotch is perhaps the ultimate safe gift, but The Glenlivet is offering a bold new option. Same classic liquid, but they ditched green glass in favor of clear, accentuating the golden whisky itself and the colorful new logo and packaging. In support of the redesign, The Glenlivet has enlisted art photographers Inez & Vinoodh to produce a disruptive, visual approach that highlights the portfolio's new modernized packaging.

PERFECT 100?

For the power papa, Rebel Yell Bourbon has a new 100 proof expression plus a new look. The updated packaging reinforces the brand's rebellious spirit, featuring embossed shoulders, revised front and back labels, and new top with matted closure and natural cork. Big bang for the buck at suggested retail of $19.99.

GOLDEN JACK

If Dad is a fan of Jack, here is the chance to gift him something brand new. After its initial launch in duty-free shops and select markets in Asia, Jack Daniel's is officially introducing Jack Daniel's No. 27 Gold to the U.S. It's classic Jack Daniel's Old No. 7 liquid, double-barreled and double-charcoal-mellowed. 80 proof, $99.99.

EAU DE VIE + WATER OF LIFE

When the Speyburn distillery was established in 1897, the location was chosen not for its beauty but rather its proximity to the Granty Burn, a tributary of the river Spey. Fittingly, Speyburn is offering a rare co-pack of Speyburn 10 Year Old single malt whisky with water from the source. SRP $30.

MARYLAND WINE IS...

GOOD FOR WINE LOVERS

Maryland's 85 wineries produce superb, handcrafted wines that compete with national brands, while highlighting all the benefits of buying local.

GOOD FOR AGRICULTURE

Maryland wineries support (and grow!) over 800 acres of grapes throughout the state. Grapes are a long-term crop, preserving open space and encouraging land preservation.

GOOD FOR TOURISM

Our industry attracts nearly 400,000 visitors annually to our wineries and wine festivals and events. These visitors spend their dollars at wineries, neighboring restaurants and accommodations.

GOOD FOR MARYLAND

Our wineries provide employment and tax revenue, supporting Maryland's rural economy by creating jobs that create tourism, preserve land and encourage agriculture. Maryland's wineries create 100 million in economic activity annually.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Facebook and Twitter @MDwine and be a part of the growth of great local wine industry.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that only 3 out of every 100 bottles of wine sold in the state are bottles of Maryland wine. It's not a lot, but it's growing, and if you buy more local wine, you create more local jobs, grow more vineyards and help preserve our rural economy.

JOIN MARYLAND WINE MONTH

We're promoting stores and restaurants that support Maryland wine during Maryland Wine month in March.
