2020 SCHEDULE OF PURCHASE PERIODS & DUE DATES

FIELD ENFORCEMENT DIVISION
REGULATORY AND LICENSING SECTION
410-260-7314

NOTICE TO RETAILERS

If wine and/or distilled spirits have been delivered to a retail licensee by a wholesaler or manufacturer on or before the PURCHASE DATE indicated in Column I, and payment is not received by the wholesaler on or before the corresponding DUE DATE listed in Column II, then the retailer is considered by state regulation to be overdue. Retailers can avoid most problems associated with late mail deliveries by mailing remittances at least five (5) days before the specified DUE DATES.

Regulation 03.02.01.04 requires Maryland wholesalers and manufacturers who sell wine and distilled spirits to retailers to (1) report the retailer to the Licensing & Registration Unit for late payment (even if payment was received after the due date) and (2) simultaneously notify the retailer that a report has been submitted to the Licensing & Registration Unit. Reports and notifications must be made for all late payments. The Licensing & Registration Unit will determine whether or not the retailer is placed on the credit control list.

The new DAC system can help elevate awareness of varietal wines beyond Grüner Veltliner. Burgenland is home to some of Austria's best Blaufränkisch.

AUSTRIA FINE TUNES

FINDING SUCCESS BEYOND GRÜNER

BY JIM CLARKE

With premiumization being a fast track to success in global wine these days, Austria is certainly on board. Bulk wines made up 60% of exports in 2000 (most of it destined for the lower shelves of German supermarkets); by 2018 bulk production had shrunk to less than 15% of the country's wines.

The U.S. has played a large role in that. Our imports of Austrian wine grew 20% from 2017 to 2018, and we are now the country's third largest market. While Grüner still dominates, a growing number of other grapes and styles are entering the spotlight, a reflection of Austria's evolution and the new spirit of innovation throughout the country's wine regions.

In an attempt to better classify its wines and terroir, Austria made some significant updates to its Districtus Austriae Controllatus (DAC) system last year.

While classification changes are always controversial on home turf (see sidebar on next page), they won't have much of an impact on how Austrian wines are promoted or purchased on our shores.

American trade buyers are paying closer attention to the other trends emerging from Austria. Here are some highlights:

VILLAGE LEVEL VALUE

Single-vineyard wines (labeled "Ried") represent the top offerings of a given DAC, becoming widely recognized since the classification was added in 2016. Yet the Ortswein category (one step up from regional Gebietswein) represents tremendous overlooked value. "Ortsweins are the intermediate category of village-level wines," says Willi Klinger, until recently the Director of the Wine Marketing Board, "and have been neglected"

CARVING UP AUSTRIA

Austria's 14 DACs fall within four official regions. Moving north to south: Niederösterreich, Wien (Vienna), Burgenland and Steiermark (aka Styria). Each DAC is defined geographically and by permitted grape varieties and has three quality tiers: Gebietswein; Ortswein; and, at the top, Riedenwein (single-vineyard wines labeled Ried).

The DAC system continues to evolve, with new regions being defined and refined all the time. Carnuntum, southeast of Vienna, became a DAC this year, and in 2018 Styria gave birth to its three DACs; Sudsteiermark and the smaller Vulkanland Steiermark and Weststeiermark. As the system grows, it's working hard to clearly articulate each DAC and what its vineyards do best.

in the market. Klinger asserts these wines offer great quality for price, with a palpable sense of terroir, and are often suited to by-the-glass programs.

RISE OF RIESLING

Niederösterreich is Austria's largest wine region, and responsible for making Austria synonymous with Grüner Veltliner. Yet in its subregions of Wachau and the smaller, more boutique DACs of Kremstal, Kamptal and Traisental, Riesling is a rising star. "Austria in my opinion is the best place for dry Riesling," says Heinz Frischengruber, Technical Director at Domäne Wachau. He says the conditions in the Wachau allow them to achieve better ripeness even when truly dry, in contrast to many German wines that might be labeled "trocken" but still have significant residual sugar.

SEKT BUBBLES UP

Sekt is less than 5% of Austria's exports to the U.S., but the category is growing dramatically, up 70% in 2018. Geographical rules for Sekt are looser than in a DAC; the top, Grosse Reserve, must use fruit from a single municipality, but needn't be single-vineyard. However, technical requirements

Home to more than half the country's vineyards, Niederösterreich is Austria's largest wine region, and largely responsible for making Austria synonymous with Grüner Veltliner. Yet in many of its DACs—the Wachau (pictured), Kremstal, Kamptal and Traisental—Riesling is a rising star.

According to Domaine Wachau's Heinz Frischengruber, conditions in the Wachau allow Riesling to achieve better ripeness even when truly dry, in contrast with many German examples that may be labeled 'trocken' but still have residual sugar.

are quite specific; while Klassik Sekts can be made with the Charmat method, Reserve and Grosse Reserve wines must be made using the traditional method with a second fermentation in the bottle; and they must be aged on the lees for a minimum of 18 and 30 months, respectively.

REDS TO WRITE HOME ABOUT

The Austrian Wine Marketing Board says red wines now account for almost one-fifth of the country's exports to the U.S., and we are getting the good stuff. "I think this is the golden age for red wine in Austria," says importer Terry Theise. He says that a couple of decades ago red wine producers were busy imitating international wine styles, but no longer. "Right now what we're seeing is great tenderness, commitment, and respect, particularly for Blaufränkisch but also for Zweigelt and St. Laurent, for the most part unobtruded upon by excessive use of oak, extraction, or high alcohol. So I look at Austrian red wines right now, and I just think 'Wow.'"

In particular, look for spicy and increasingly complex Blaufränkisch from the Burgenland DAC. In the Neusiedlersee DAC, east and north of the lake, the fruitier, highly aromatic Zweigelt thrives.

TOO MUCH CONTROLLATUS?

Not everyone is convinced the DAC system is a slam dunk. Some argue it's too complex, creating an extra barrier when introducing the wines to consumers. It also highlights some grapes over others; varieties with deep historical roots like Gelber Muskateller or Röter Veltliner are excluded from prestigious DACs. Michael Dolinski, Wine Director at Wallsé in Manhattan, where the list is 100% Austrian, notes: "They want to restrict Riedenwein (single vineyard) to only DAC-approved grapes. So if I've got a vineyard that's been Röter Veltliner for 75 years, I can't put the name of the vineyard or the region on the label. I can only put the varietal; all of a sudden it becomes a generic wine."

For this reason, some producers and even entire regions work outside the DAC system. The Wachau, for example, has its own set of tiers based on ripeness. Gut Oggau, a family operation in the Burgenland, created three tiers named for their children and parents. Officially, these wines get "declassified" and labeled at the most generic level of "Osteirischer Landwein" ("Wine of Austria"), in spite of their incredible quality.

STEIERSMARK'S STUNNING SB

The Steiermark, in the corner where Slovenia and Hungary meet, is proving to be a source of phenomenal Sauvignon Blanc. "I've always thought the taste of Styrian Sauvignon Blanc more closely resembles those of northern Italy or Slovenia rather than the tart citrus of Sancerre or refreshingly green edge of Marlborough," says Master Sommelier Jesse Becker, Portfolio Specialist at Winebow's Craft + Estate. Chardonnay from the region, sometimes under its local name, Morillon, is also finding its way onto U.S. wine lists and shelves. ■

DATEBOOK! ~ January 2020

PROMOTE JANUARY!

Happy New Year! Will it be? You can make a difference in your future and that of your fellow industry members. Joining and being active in your local and state and national associations will pay dividends! Make it your first New Year's resolution to "get involved"! For motivation, remember that a century ago, in 1920, at midnight, January 16, national prohibition took effect. Something we should never forget! Meanwhile, think beyond the football championships and other sports action and give your business a boost by considering some promotional activities built around these birthdays and anniversaries. Month-long observations include Be Kind to Food Servers Month, Shape Up Month, Mentoring Month, Clean Up Your Computer Month, Hot Tea Month, and Oatmeal Month.

MARYLAND WINE

MARYLAND WINE IS...

GOOD FOR WINE LOVERS

Maryland's 85 wineries produce superb, handcrafted wines that compete with national brands, while highlighting all the benefits of buying local.

GOOD FOR AGRICULTURE

Maryland wineries support (and grow!) over 800 acres of grapes throughout the state. Grapes are a long-term crop, preserving open space and encouraging land preservation.

GOOD FOR TOURISM

Our industry attracts nearly 400,000 visitors annually to our wineries and wine festivals and events. These visitors spend their dollars at wineries, neighboring restaurants and accommodations.

GOOD FOR MARYLAND

Our wineries provide employment and tax revenue, supporting Maryland's rural economy by creating jobs that create tourism, preserve land and encourage agriculture. Maryland's wineries create 100 million in economic activity annually.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Facebook and Twitter @MDwine and be a part of the growth of great local wine industry.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that only 3 out of every 100 bottles of wine sold in the state are bottles of Maryland wine. It's not a lot, but it's growing, and if you buy more local wine, you create more local jobs, grow more vineyards and help preserve our rural economy.

JOIN MARYLAND WINE MONTH

We're promoting stores and restaurants that support Maryland wine during Maryland Wine month in March.

THE PRISONER BREAKS OUT 'UNSHACKLED'

The Prisoner Wine Company, now fully part of Constellation Brands, is aiming to extend offerings while keeping their cultish edge. A trio of Unshackled wines has joined their portfolio of super-luxury blends with provocative labels, again highlighting Director of Winemaking Chrissy Wittmann's rule-bending blending style. The Unshackled 2018 Red Blend (SRP $30) comprises Zinfandel, Malbec, Petite Sirah, Syrah and Grenache; the 2018 Cabernet Sauvignon ($30) is blended with small amounts of Petite Sirah, Syrah and Merlot; and the 2019 Rosé ($27) is based on Pinot Noir, Syrah, Grenache and Mourvèdre. Unshackled packaging features the look of a vintage combination lock debossed with details of appellation, grape varieties and vintage. cbrands.com

SAGRANTINO REIMAGINED

There are few men as obsessed with Umbria's inky, powerful Sagrantino grape as Arnaldo Caprai; his family helped save the grape from extinction in the 1960s, and pioneered Montefalco's DOCG status in 1992. Now, after a decade of research, Caprai is releasing a wine from 100% of the clone he believes yields Sagrantino's finest expression: the "Cobra" clone, planted in his estate's Monte della Torre vineyard. The very limited first release is the 2009 Spinning Beauty. Eight years in French oak have helped tame Sagrantino's notoriously fierce tannins, yet it also has the ability to age for decades, Caprai believes. SRP $300 arnaldocaprai.it | wilsondaniels.com

WINES SAY WHAT?!

Has the torrent of new wine labels loosened up the standards at TTB? Arriving this month in NY and NJ, the red blend Good Fucking Wine promises quite a mouthful! It's from California, naturally? ($14.99; goodfuckingwines.com). Also from California, the rosé spritzer Bubble Butt taps into four hot trends: hard seltzer, rosé, sparkling wine and canned wine, while playfully teasing an anatomical slang term. Arriving spring 2020. 8.4% ABV; $10.99/ four-pack 250ml cans. warroomventures.com

TERLATO PINOT GRIGIO TAKES A BOW

Terlato and Riedel, two established wine family names, have united to create the Terlato Friuli Pinot Grigio Riedel Glass. The collaboration is a natural—Terlato became one of the first U.S. distribution partners for Riedel in the 1990s. The glass features a smaller mouth and bowl to best capture the aromas and balance the fruit and minerality; an elongated stem, a Riedel signature, adds elegance. Not planned for retail sale, the glass is being offered free via coupons off-premise (where legal), and on-premise programs are planned. Meanwhile, with or without the custom stem, the 2018 Terlato Friuli displays new packaging; embossed type and gold foil add a polished look. The crest is intentionally cropped to create a disruptive eye-catching effect. SRP $24.99 terlatowines.com

MARK-UP/GROSS PROFIT CONVERSION

MARK-UP is the percentage you earn on the COST of an item you sell. GROSS PROFIT is the percentage you earn on the SELLING PRICE of the item. Confuse them and you get an over-optimistic view of your business.

When you relate earnings to sales, think only of Gross Profit. In terms of sales, Mark-Up has no meaning. Gross Profit tells you what you earn--retain--on each $1 of sales to pay you business expenses. Anything left over is net profit.

NOTE: Mark-Up percentages below are converted to Gross Profit percentages by rounding to nearest 1/10 of 1%.

MARK-UP – How to Compute It:

A brand costs you $75 a case and brings in $90 --$15 above cost. Divide your earnings ($15) by your cost ($75) and you get a mark-up on cost of 20%.

GROSS PROFIT – How to Compute It:

The same brand costs you $75 and brings in $90--$15 above cost. Divide your earnings ($15) by your selling price ($90) and you get a gross profit on selling of 16.7% -- 16.7 cents on each $1.00 of sales -- to pay expenses.
